I (we) understand that under the Regulations “development” means any of the following associated with or resulting from the local government regulation or approval of residential, commercial or industrial activities to the extent that they are subject to local government powers under the Local Government Act:

- b) disturbance of soils;

Riparian Areas Regulation Transition Policy

Any of the following associated with or resulting from the local government regulation or approval of residential, commercial or industrial uses or ancillary activities to the extent that they are subject to local government powers under Part 26 of the Local Government Act:

- a) removal, alteration, disruption or destruction of vegetation;
- b) disturbance of soils;
- c) construction or erection of buildings and structures;
- d) creation of non structural impervious or semi-impervious surfaces;
- e) flood protection works;
- f) construction of roads, trails, docks, wharves and bridges;
- g) provision and maintenance of sewer and water services;
- h) development of drainage systems;
- i) development of utility corridors;
- j) subdivision as defined in section 872 of the Local Government Act;

And which are located within a “riparian assessment area” which is defined as follows:

- a) for stream, the 30 metre strip on both sides of the stream , measured from the high water mark,
- b) for a ravine less than 60 metres wide, a strip on both sides of the stream measured from the high water mark to a point that is 30 metres beyond the top of the ravine bank, and
- c) for a ravine 60 meters wide or greater, a strip on both sides of the stream measured from the high water mark to a point that is 10 metres beyond the top of the ravine bank.

Then, for a local government to allow development to proceed in a riparian assessment area, a developer will be required to follow the RAR and, at their expense, hire a QEP to provide an assessment report to the Ministry of Environment and to Fisheries and Oceans Canada and the local government must receive notification from the Ministry that, in respect of the proposed development, an assessment report has been received which meets the requirements of section 4 (2) or of section 4 (3) of the Riparian Areas Regulation. For example, these requirements apply to the issuance of development permits, development variance permits or building permits for development involving a riparian assessment area or in relation to zoning, re-zoning or subdivision servicing bylaws in respect of development in a riparian assessment area.

If a development is proposed in an area that is clearly not in, or in close proximity to, a riparian assessment area, then the normal local approval process will be followed. However, if there is any doubt, local government staff may consider requiring the developer to sign a document, such as an affidavit, confirming that, in respect of the proposed development, there are no changes proposed within a riparian assessment area.. The developer will then be responsible for any consequences of not following the Riparian Areas Regulation or for providing incorrect information.

BUILDING PERMIT APPLICATION DRAWING EXAMPLES

Being a new applicant, we find that we are asked what is meant by certain drawings that we require for submission with your Building Permit Application form. In some cases, the drawings must be signed and sealed by a professional engineer or architect licensed to practice in the Province of BC. In most cases, professional assurance is not needed for small residential buildings. The typical drawings required are:

Site Plan

This scalable Site Plan should show the location and distances to property lines, adjacent street(s) and all existing and proposed buildings on the property (setbacks). It should also show the location of the driveway(s), septic tank and field (if applicable), wells, creeks, ravines, ponds, rights-of-way, easements, and a sign indicating which direction is north should also be shown.

Floor Plan

These should detail the size, shape and use of each room and space in the building, and should show the location and size of each door and window. The dimensions of each room, and the total area for each floor should also be noted on the drawings.

Foundation Plan

This drawing should show the size and location of all portions of the foundation.

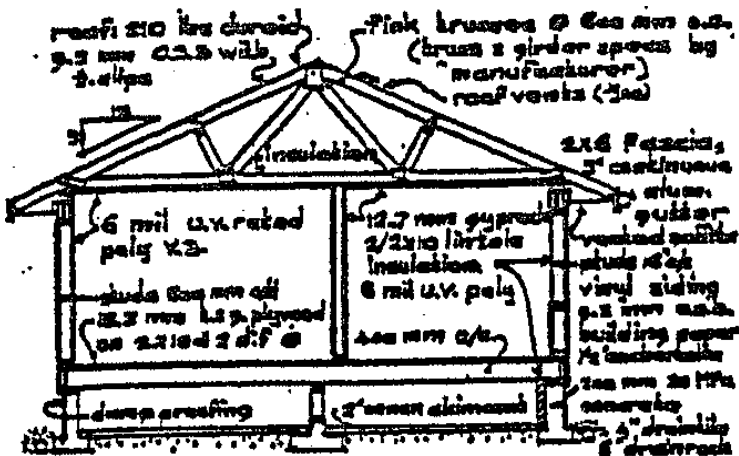

Elevations

These should show the front, side and rear faces of the building. They should detail the finished ground level adjacent to the face of the building, all doors, windows, and any projections from the face of the building such as roof overhangs.

* Two elevations are shown, but you are required to submit (4) four.

Typical Cross-Sections

These should show the structure of the building in sufficient detail to assess the type of materials used and the structural adequacy. For a simple building only one cross-section is usually required. In some cases, two or more will be necessary to adequately show the nature of proposed construction.

You may not need to provide all of the above drawings in every case. For example, it may not be necessary to provide a site plan for interior renovations. Check with the Building Inspection Department or the Planning Department to ensure you have prepared sufficient drawings for our requirements.

* One Cross-Section shown, but you may be required to submit two.

PLEASE NOTE

CONSTRUCTION PLANS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED IN DUPLICATES (2) AT A MINIMUM SCALE OF 1:50 (1/4" – 1'0")
